

Collection of the Best
Nail Art Vloggers

Hello TAOND Nail Artistry Students,

In addition to the How To Videos we have provided you in the 'Inspirational How To' Nail Art Videos Module, we have also spent hours and hours scouring the internet to find today's most popular and talented Social Media Nail Artists to share with you in hopes of providing you with even more content to inspire your creative genius!

Again, as with the other How To videos, you are free to copy any of these techniques and designs that these amazing Nail Artists show or twist them to make them your very own - it's completely up to you!

Remember, for your TAOND NAIL ARTISTRY FINAL ASSIGNMENT what we are looking for is less about the level of difficulty of the designs and techniques you choose, but more about your ability to focus on a complete design that is well thought out and perfectly executed.

Inspiration can come from anywhere and you are certainly not restricted to only these Nail Artists that we've found. If you have a favorite artist you love to follow, then we absolutely encourage you to use that particular artist's work as a base for your assignment. We hope that you find all the inspiration you need from in order to successfully complete your assignment.

Have Fun!

My name is Sarah Thompson, and I am the creator of Chalkboard Nails as well as a licensed nail technician. I specialize in handpainted nail art, both with gel polish and regular lacquer. I've always been interested in the creative arts, earning my BFA in Photography in 2010.

My journey into nail art and blogging began in July 2011, when I saw a leopard print nail art tutorial and just had to try it myself. I became licensed in 2015, partially in thanks to the CND Tippi Hedren scholarship for nail technicians through Beauty Changes Lives.

I was named Phoenix New Times' Best Nail Artist in 2016 and 2018. My work has been featured on The Today Show, Nail It! Magazine, NAILPRO Magazine, Redbook, and more. I've also had the opportunity to film tutorials for Oxygen's television series Nail'd It!, and coauthored Pretty Hands and Sweet Feet in 2015.

My name is Dorra and it turns out that in my own way I am an explorer! I am an engineer passionate about everything related to beauty, especially nails. I love varnishes because they are always different from each other. I like the way they brighten up our daily lives. I also love stamping and nail-art. It is and has been for a long time a way to express myself!

On my blog I share with you my passion for varnishes through magazines, tutorials etc. You will also find information on the new products that are brewing! Also, from time to time, I will tell you about my favorites that relate to makeup, or any other subject deserving of an article! On the program: Reviews, Tutorials, Product Tests and Contests!

twi STAR

just a girl living in a nail polish world

Hi, I'm Angel aka twi_star! My love affair with polish has been lifelong but it didn't really hit obsession phase until 4 years ago. I've had the twi-star blog since 2009 and it was originally focused on all things vampires, mainly the Twilight series. Since Twilight has died down I decided to switch the focus of the blog over to nails and nail art. Occasionally you will see posts about vampires, zombies, Game of Thrones.....or any other show I'm obsessed with :)

I'm the crazy potty mouthed, goat loving nail tech from the hills of Shropshire.

I was your average tech until 2017, when I was spotted for my acrylic not polish creations by Glitterarty and I guess the rest is history. I now work closely with the glitter brand, and also promote for, Bluestreak Crystals and Glitterbels.

I now have a social media following of more than 80,000 followers and growing.

In 2018 I won voters choice in the great scratch shoot out award and became a finalist in the West Midlands Top Nail Tech Award. In that year I also passed my AET in teaching and continue to train with inspiring techs across the UK, such as Hazel Dixon and Kirsty Meakin, as I truly believe you can never know enough. If you think you know it all, you never will!!!!

I'm an independent Nail Artist, Educator & Glitter Fairy, based in Suffolk, UK. I retrained and completely changed my career in 2013, from International Competition Groom to Nail and Glitter Addict.

My YouTube channel was created following requests from my followers on Facebook, mainly asking how I had created certain designs and how I worked.

It's you, my follower, that keep me inspired and focused on continuing to create content that you have requested and want to see. I aim to inspire you to be more creative, try new things and to have somewhere to go for helpful videos and honest reviews and advice. I specialize in Acrylic Nail Design and love creating videos for you all to enjoy.

My name is Katie Dutra and welcome to my channel! I have always had a creative mind & have many loves! Including nails, I also enjoy photography, art and graphic design.

I attended beauty school and received my full cosmetology license in 2012. Originally, I was planning on becoming a hairstylist but all that changed when I fell in love with nails. I have always had a love for art and each nail is like its own little canvas.

I only use high quality professional products and am constantly keeping up with new nail trends. I regularly attend classes and conventions to learn new skills and the latest techniques. I have so much fun creating nail designs and making people smile with them!

While I do use professional products in my videos and they are intended for nail technicians like myself, I believe everyone can be inspired from my videos to create fun designs, even if they just do nails for fun.

Thank you for visiting my channel and I hope you enjoy my videos!

Taking a humorous look at challenges faced by nail techs and educators on a daily basis. It all comes down to education.

I am an international educator, nail tech and competitor and have traveled extensively. These are a couple of examples of the frustrations experienced by myself and fellow techs.

It's time to take a step back, look at ourselves and remember why we started doing nails in the first place..... It's the best job in the world!

I am not representing a brand or particular product and the views expressed are my own.
